Order Your Lee Heritage Scarf in Honor of Robert E. Lee’s 200th Birthday

The Delta of Columbia Stratford Committee is offering a limited number of Lee Heritage Scarves to raise funds to help maintain the historic plantation of Stratford.

This banded and uniquely designed scarf was inspired by the equally beautiful piece of silk used by Mrs. Parker for the original artwork. The drafting tools were borrowed by Mrs. Garrett from Mrs. Parker’s drafts.

The handsome, hand-banded Lee Heritage Scarf, made in Lyon, France, is 100 percent heavy silk twill and measures 36 by 36 inches. Its predominant colors of gold, red and blue are the same background tone those of the original Lee silk of arms registered at the College of Heralds in England.

You can purchase one of these special edition scarves for $240, which includes shipping and handling. Complete and mail the order form at left, or call 804-493-8038, extension 9796.

A test print collection photograph, will give a presentation in the Preservation Gallery on photography during the Civil War era. The Plantation Dining Room will offer a special dinner buffet with at 6:00 p.m. Professor James I. Robertson, Jr., of the Center for Civil War Studies at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, will give a talk on Lee at 7:30 p.m. in the Council House. Dr. Robertson’s presentation will also be offered again on Sunday afternoon, January 21. The dinner and this lecture will be by reservation only due to limited space.

On Sunday, January 21, Robert E. Lee portrayer Al Stone will be at the Visitor Center with his latest Finished Special “Lee for Children” tours will be held and parents can accompany their children on this special tour that emphasizes Lee’s childhood at Stratford. Children can bring their photograph records for a free “Potter’s luncheon” in the Visitor Center. Photographs will be printed and available for pickup in the receptionist’s desk.

ON MARCH 26

On Saturday, March 26, the Stratford Plantation Store will be open for shopping. The Plantation Dining Room will be open for lunch at its regular hours and the Plantation Store will be open for shopping. At 2:00 p.m. Professor James I. Robertson, Jr. will give a lecture on Robert E. Lee in the Council House. There is no charge for attending the lecture, but reservations are required since space is limited.

ON APRIL 5

On Friday, April 5, the Visitor Center will feature two new exhibits on Robert E. Lee’s life and his role in the Civil War. Light refreshments will be served throughout the day in the Visitor Center. The Stratford Plantation will be open for lunch at its regular hours.

For more information visit our website at www.stratfordhall.org.

R. E. Lee 1807-2007: Celebration of an American Icon (continued from front page)

musical tributes to Lee during the evening. The Plantation Dining Room will be open for a special Lee Birthday Dinner Buffet, with a single seating at 7:05 p.m. There will be an admission charge on Friday, and the music program and dinner will be by reservation only due to limited space.

On Saturday, January 20, there will be five admission during the day for adults and children to attend the "Lee for Children" tours, the new Robert E. Lee exhibit in the Visitor Center, the artfully color-coded South and South-East of the Oval, and Al Stone’s presentation on "Lee’s Decision" in the Preservation Gallery. The "Lee for Children" tours will be offered three times, and parents can accompany their children on this special tour that emphasizes Lee’s childhood at Stratford. Children can bring their photograph records for a free "Potter’s luncheon" in the Visitor Center. Photographs will be printed and available for pickup in the receptionist’s desk.

A text print collection photograph, will give a presentation in the Preservation Gallery on photography during the Civil War era. The Plantation Dining Room will offer a special dinner buffet with at 6:00 p.m. Professor James I. Robertson, Jr., of the Center for Civil War Studies at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, will give a talk on Lee at 7:30 p.m. in the Council House. Dr. Robertson’s presentation will also be offered again on Sunday afternoon, January 21. The dinner and this lecture will be by reservation only due to limited space.

On Sunday, January 21, Robert E. Lee portrayer Al Stone will be at the Visitor Center with his latest Finished Special “Lee for Children” tours will be held and parents can accompany their children on this special tour that emphasizes Lee’s childhood at Stratford. Children can bring their photograph records for a free “Potter’s luncheon” in the Visitor Center. Photographs will be printed and available for pickup in the receptionist’s desk.
Lee Circle Event Provides The Stratford Experience

The Lee Circle has recently announced that they will once again sponsor a special event at Stratford, which enables us to recognize those who give between $500 and $999. An event which will be held on Saturday, September 22.

First Annual Fall Food and Harvest Fest a Success

Stratford celebrated the fall season with a Northern Neck Fall Feast and Harvest Festival on Saturday, October 28 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Approximately 500 people manned stalls for the fall festival, which included hayrides, a petting farm, blackberry preserves, pepper jelly, Vidalia Onion Mustard, Pumpkin Salsa, Apple Chutney and Stratford Creamed Ham. The event netted $10,432.00.

Stratford Strawberries

Includes a 3-pound Virginia Hamlet Salsa, Apple Chutney and Stratford Strawberry Jam.

Stratford Holiday Basket

Includes one can of Virginia Blackberry Preserves, Pepper Jelly and a Fruit Cake.

Stratford Party Basket

Includes a 22 oz. can of Virginia Cream of Crab and a Linen Cocktail Napkins.

Soup’s On Basket

Includes a can of Maryland Clam Chowder, Shrimp Bisque, Cream of Crab and a Linen Soup’s On Basket.

Stratford Tea

Includes Stratford Blend Tea in a Custom Tin, Scone Mix and a Linen Tea Towel.

Stratford Sampler

Includes a Stratford Tea Towel, Stratford Blend Tea, Scone Mix, Mason Jar, grapeseed oil, hand-tied gourmet gift box.

Just For You Basket

Includes Blackberry Preserves, Vidalia Onion Mustard, Pickle, Bread and a Linen Square.

Order a Gift Basket from the Plantation Store in Time for Christmas 2006!

These wonderful Gift Baskets, filled with Stratford Plantation products, are available from the Plantation Store. Please use the customer order form provided here, phone your order to (804) 493-4088, extension 9760, or fax it to (804) 493-9353. Custom Gift Baskets can also be ordered. Call or visit us on the web at www.stratfordhall.org.