Stratford Hall Summer Teacher Institute

Realism, Reaction, and Possibility: Reconstruction in Virginia 1865 - 1885.
July 24 - 27, 2019

(Please print)

Name___________________________ School Name___________________________

Home Address_________________________________________________________________

School Address_______________________________________________________________

Home Phone_____________________________ Cell Phone___________________________

E-mail Address______________________________________________________________

Grade level and subject (if applicable) you teach ________________________________
(The Institute is open to all public and private certificate-holding school teachers K-12)

How to apply: A complete application package needs to include both this application form and an essay (400-1000 words) responding to this statement: We cannot understand the United States if we do not understand the South.

Candidates may apply any time after February 1, 2019, and notification of acceptance will be within one week of submittal. E-mail the application materials to Jon Bachman, Public Events Manager, jbachman@stratfordhall.org, or mail the application to 483 Great House Road, Stratford, VA 22558. Call 804-493-1972 for more information, if needed. The Institute has a limited number of openings, so early application is recommended.

Cost: Participants will be required to cover their transportation costs to and from Stratford and three evening meals. All other Institute costs (full tuition, housing, and most meals) are covered by fellowship funding sources.

Lodging and Dining

Handicapped accessibility needs: Yes____ No____ If yes, please explain.
Would you be willing to share a room or cabin with another teacher? Yes____ No___
Please list any dietary restrictions_________________________________________________________________
Please call 804-493-1967 to confirm your reservation upon acceptance.