WEDDINGS at STRATFORD HALL

est. 1747

Our historic property provides a timeless setting for a truly unique Virginia wedding. From intimate indoor celebrations to elaborate tented affairs, Stratford Hall sets the tone for exceptional wedding celebrations.

The landscaped gardens, wooded nature trails, working farm, and expansive waterfront afford limitless recreational opportunities for guests and breathtaking backdrops for a phenomenal wedding experience. With 21 beautiful rooms on site at Stratford Hall, guests have the opportunity to explore the historic area on foot while staying in our on-site guest houses or cabins. Our dining room can accommodate seasonal meals and special events throughout the year, perfect for your indoor venue or reception.

Located in Virginia's historic Northern Neck, Stratford Hall's majestic Great House and grounds were first established in the 18th century. Today, Stratford has preserved the original acreage with the addition of a visitor center, research library, gift shop, lodging, and dining facilities.

EVENT SPACES

North Steps of the Great House

Our most popular Wedding Ceremony location, rich in history and grand in scale, the North Steps offer a majestic, pastoral view of the property for you and your guests

The East Garden

A favorite setting for an open-air cocktail reception, the East Garden combines traditional English landscaping with proximity to the Great House and Historic Area

duPont Library

A beautiful, rustic setting for intimate affairs, the duPont's extensive collection of rare books will be sure to spark conversation

The Council House

Adjacent to the Stratford Dining Room and lodging guest houses, the Council House is our largest indoor venue attractively situated in a wooded setting

Dining Room

For accessibility, comfort, and rustic charm, our front dining room is an ideal indoor location for smaller gatherings
Dining Room Porch Experience exquisite wooded views through floor to ceiling windows in the privacy of our Dining Room Porch

Stratford's Beach

Facing the Potomac River, a Stratford beach wedding is ideal for intimate ceremony
